WELCOME TO EUGENE IHS!

"It must be remembered that the purpose of education is not to fill the minds of students with facts...it is to teach them to think."

~Robert M. Hutchins

For over 20 years, Eugene International High School (Eugene IHS) has been providing an excellent education to students of all abilities and backgrounds. Every student interested in exploring the world is welcome in our school—we are committed to offering this exceptional educational opportunity to all School District 4-J high school students.

Eugene IHS offers a nationally recognized curriculum in international studies taught to the rigorous standards of the International Baccalaureate curriculum.

We employ a variety of best practices to ensure your student's academic success. Some of these features include:

- An integrated curriculum. We make relevant connections to students' lives.
- Team teaching. We create powerful learning opportunities.
- Extended block periods. We provide a more personalized education.
- Student cohort groups. We help students build meaningful relationships.
- Established rigor. We are affiliated with the International Baccalaureate Organization.

Eugene IHS is committed to providing a unique educational experience to students with IEPs, 504 Plans, and other identified special needs.

At the center of student learning in Eugene IHS are the relationships fostered among students, teachers, parents and the community. Working together and in close conjunction with the support services available at each campus, we address the needs of students by designing individualized plans of study. This ensures each student will receive appropriate instruction, working to reach their full potential in the high school setting.

Eugene IHS is committed to making appropriate accommodations and modifications in accordance with individualized plans for students with special needs. In a challenging academic setting that emphasizes specialized instructional strategies, all Eugene IHS students of differing abilities and backgrounds can prepare for successful living in an international community.

We look forward to seeing you in Eugene IHS!
